

Sharing Session

Winner of CILT Enterprise Award 2020

Kerry Logistics

Winner of the CILT Enterprise Award 2020 – Kerry Logistics will share with us on how they stood out from other quality entries to win the Award in this sharing session!

How technology changes the logistics industry?

Technology is steadily disrupting all aspects of the logistics industry. Kerry Logistics is therefore increasingly becoming a tech company and will give emphasis to the use of information technology and AI wherever practical in warehouse, fleet, freight, contract, and e-commerce management. The purpose is to serve their customers well, ensure quick response and minimise bureaucratic delays. Kerry Logistics has been utilising technological innovations to assist multinational corporations and international brands in building their competitive edge through its trusted and innovative industry-specific solutions. In this session, Mr. Jacky Chan, will share with us on how technology changes the logistics industry.

Members and non-members are welcomed to join. Come and join us for meeting fellow professionals!
